5 Supporting Information

5.1 Under the Local Government Act 1974 the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman can investigate any alleged or apparent:

- maladministration in connection with the Council's administrative functions
- failure in a service which it was the Council's function to provide
- failure to provide a service which it was the Council's function to provide
- failure in a service provided by the Council under its public health functions; or
- Failure to provide a service under the Council's public health functions.

5.2 The Ombudsman can prepare a report following his or her investigation which may include recommendations of actions for the Council to take to remedy the maladministration including a recommendation to pay monetary compensation to the complainant. The Ombudsman does not have formal legal powers to enforce compliance by the Council with his recommendations. Failure by the Council to comply with the recommendations could, however, result in the issue by the Ombudsman of a formal public interest report about the complaint, naming the Council. This report must be made available to the public and advertised in the local press covering the Council's area. If the Council do not agree to carry out the recommendations in the report the Ombudsman will issue a further report. After this, if the Council still do not take satisfactory action they must publish a statement in a local newspaper explaining why they have refused to follow the Ombudsman's recommendations.

5.3 Under the Monitoring Officer Protocol in Part 5.6 of the Council's constitution Directors must consult the Monitoring Officer prior to making any compensation payments for alleged maladministration found against the Council and Directors and Members must report any breach of statutory duty or material breach of Council policy/procedures and other vices or constitutional concerns to the Monitoring Officer as soon as reasonably practicable.

5.4 The following table summarises the complaints, findings, recommendations and outcomes in relation to complaints made to him concerning the Council since the last report to the Committee on this subject on 8 March 2018.
