

Reducing Parental Conflict Train the Trainer Course Expression of Interest

Slough Borough Council are offering up to 20 individuals (professionals/and or volunteers) from local services and organisations the opportunity to undertake Reducing Parental Conflict (RPC) Train the Trainer course. As a Train the Trainer instructor you will be required to support the delivery and future training of the programme within Slough. In order to be considered for a place for the Trainer the Trainer Course, please complete and return the attached Expression of Interest form and return by 5pm on Wednesday 29th January 2020

The Instructor Training

- Training takes place over 2 days. The planned training dates are below and the training will take place in Slough.

Monday 24th February 2020	(9:30-17:00) Observatory House, 25 Windsor Road, Slough
Tuesday 25th February 2020	(9.00-17.30) Observatory House, 25 Windsor Road, Slough

- For full information about the training please follow link below:

Reducing Parental Conflict (RPC) - Learr

Trainer Expectations

- The cost of the training (all modules) is fully funded by SBC but your service area will need to cover travel costs to and from the training
- Anyone attending the Train the Trainer course should either attend all modules (module 4 only applies to supervisors/managers) as face to face training, or as a minimum have completed modules 1 & 2 online and completed module 3 as face-to-face training. Scheduled dates for modules below:

10/02/2020	Module 1 - Understanding parental conflict & its impact on child outcomes
10/02/2020	Module 1 - Understanding parental conflict & its impact on child outcomes
13/02/2020	Module 2 - Recognising & supporting parents in the parental conflict
13/02/2020	Module 2 - Recognising & supporting parents in the parental conflict
18/02/2020	Module 3 - Working with parents in parental conflict
18/02/2020	Module 3 - Working with parents in parental conflict

- Once you have attended the training you will be required to co-deliver a minimum of two courses alongside any refresh/review workshops (up to 2 per year) between April 2020-March 2021
- Dates for co-delivery training will be shared and confirmed with you in advance
- You will need to attend SBC's RPC Steering Group Meeting 3 times a year (each meeting will be for 2 hours).

Eligibility Criteria

- Applications to train as an instructor must be made using the attached expression of interest form outlining your skills, qualities and experience that will make you a good RPC instructor

- Interested applicants ideally would have undertaken and/or delivered training in relative areas i.e. 'whole family working', Mental Health, Attachment & Trauma, safeguarding etc.
- Your organisation has authorised for you to attend the training dates stated above provide a continued commitment towards delivery.
- Your application must be supported by a Manager/Head of Service (who can confirm the criteria has been met and that they support your application and future commitments)
- Your organisation will need to be prepared to sign an agreement (memo of understanding/Service Level Agreement) to commit to you fulfilling the requirements listed within this document (pre and post training)

Once you are a approved trainer, there is the following expectation:

- Between April 2020-March 2021 you will deliver at least two courses (two days per course) - dates will be pre-set by SBC
- Attend at least one regional RPC instructor network events annually.

If you have any questions please contact Anjali Sidhu by email: anjli.sidhu@slough.gov.uk

Closing dates for applications – 5pm on Wednesday 29th January 2020

Reducing Parental Conflict Train the Trainer Course Expression of Interest Form

Please return completed forms back to Anjli.Sidhu@slough.gov.uk by 5pm Wednesday 29th January 2020

Please add in subject Reducing Parental Conflict Train the Trainer Programme - Application for training place.

A small panel will review all applications and places will be allocated based on the strength of application forms. We will contact all applicants by close of play on Monday 3rd February 2020.

Full Name
Mobile number
Email
Position
Organisation

Supporting information : (max 500 words) please outline your skills, qualities and experience that will make you a good RBC Trainer

I confirm that

- I can attend the training on 24th & 25th February 2020.
- I have read all of the requirements pre and post training and understand the commitment and can meet the requirements listed

Signed
Print Name
Date

Line Manager/Head of Service approval

Please obtain your line managers authorisation by getting them to complete the below:

Signed
Print Name
Position
Date

Thank you