Removal of Double Yellow Lines - Arkwright Road

Office and Warehouse premises at 9 Arkwright Road, SL3 OHJ.

Double yellow lines have recently been painted the length of Arkwright Road which is causing businesses in this area major problems with parking, especially of vans. The businesses operated by the signatories are connected with Heathrow Airport and they each have a number of vans providing various services. It is essential to these businesses that the vans have good access to Arkwright Road with adequate parking. The efficient running of these businesses has been severely compromised by the painting of these double yellow lines.

Previously, there was never a problem with congestion caused by parking in Arkwright Road and the painting of yellow lines was unnecessary and the effects are negative rather than positive.

We would appreciate you doing what you can so that these double yellow lines are removed.
